PERSONAL ATTENTION • LEADING-EDGE CARE

Shobha R. Nalluri, MD

Dr. Shobha Nalluri brings a world of experience and a wealth of compassion to our patients in the Tri-Cities region. Born in Ongole, India, Dr. Nalluri earned her Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery at Osmania Medical College in 2002. In 2005, she relocated to State University of New York at Stony Brook where she completed her internship and residency in internal medicine and her fellowship in hematology and oncology.

Dr. Nalluri is board certified in internal medicine, hematology and medical oncology, and she has special interest in solid tumors of the lung and breast as well as colon cancers, hematology and hematological malignancies. She is an active member of the American Society of Clinical Oncologists.

Dr. Nalluri sees patients in VCI's Petersburg and Prince George offices. When she's not working to help patients, she can be found spending time with her children and husband and enjoying music.

DR. NALLURI'S PATIENT CARE PHILOSOPHY:

"Every patient should receive the best personalized care, based on his or her needs and condition. I believe in treating my patients with utmost care, as I would want for my family."

WHAT PATIENTS SAY ABOUT DR NALLURI:

"I have been under Dr. Nalluri's care for several years, and we've been working together to get a handle on my cancer. We always have frank discussions, which helps me get a better understanding of my situation."
